The first of these is the fact that the population of the United States is increasing at a rapid rate. This is due to a number of factors, including immigration, a high birth rate, and a declining death rate. The second factor is the fact that the United States is a large country with a vast area of land. This allows for a large population to be spread out over a wide area. The third factor is the fact that the United States has a high standard of living. This allows for a large population to be supported.
